ORDER ACCEPTING THE SPECIAL MASTER’S PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
REGARDING INDIVIDUAL SERVICE COORDINATION

In accordance with the Order of Reference (Docket Item No. 271) the Special Master has filed his Proposed Findings & Conclusions Regarding Individual Service Coordinators (hereinafter “ISCs”)(Docket Item No. 280). Based on the state of the record herein, the Special Master finds Defendants to be in substantial compliance with the paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) provisions of the Consent Decree relating to ISCs and in partial compliance with paragraphs (e) and (f) and in noncompliance with paragraphs (g) and (h) and directs the Defendants to submit to the Special Master:

- (1) Within 30 days of the filing of his report with the Court, a Corrective Action Plan with respect to achieving compliance in Region One with paragraphs (e) and (f) of the Certification.
- (2) Within 45 days of the filing of his report with the Court, a Corrective Action Plan to achieve compliance with paragraphs (g) and (h) of the Certification.

He also recommends that the Department and the Consumer Advisory Board collaborate on developing alternative methods of implementing the intent of the provision of the Consent Decree regarding ISC visits to class members' program sites which are not center-based, and report their recommendations to the Special Master.

The Court has carefully reviewed those factual findings, legal conclusions, direction and the recommendation to the Defendant and finds no error, and there being no objection to the acceptance thereof, the Court hereby ACCEPTS and AFFIRMS the Special Master's Proposed Findings, Conclusions, Direction and the Recommendations Regarding ISCs.
